APPLICATION AGREEMENT with the UNIVERSITY STUDENTS' COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION
PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

I hereby apply for active membership in the USCA, a co-op owned and operated by its members to provide themselves with a cooperative, self-help, low-cost living situation. I understand that when accepted as a USCA member, I also become a member of NASCO (North American Students of Cooperation).

I agree to pay a USCA application fee, to be applied to my membership charges if I become a member and otherwise non-refundable, plus a waiting list deposit, refundable if I withdraw my deposit or do not accept a reservation offer, or when I permanently leave the co-op. If my account is inactive or abandoned for a period greater than 3 years, I understand and agree that my deposit will be forfeited to and become property of the USCA.

If accepted, I agree to become an informed member by taking interest in house activities, abiding by USCA By-Laws and regulations, and respecting the traditional principles of cooperation including voluntary and non-discriminatory membership; one member, one vote; limited return on capital; equitable distribution of savings; constant education; and cooperation among cooperatives.

Only students who meet eligibility requirements qualify for membership in the USCA. Exceptions may be made, and all persons who will not be eligible students must apply to the USCA Administrative Committee for admission to the co-op. This application may be withdrawn at any time. The USCA is not a division of, nor affiliated with, the University of California.
